Pope Francis IX

$12.95

It has been said that St John Paul, as Mystic and philosopher, expressed the soul of the Church, Pope Emeritus Benedict as theologian, the mind of the Church, and now our present Holy Father, the heart of the Church.

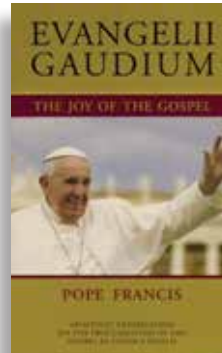

In this beautiful encyclical the Holy Father expresses his concern for our world, not only from a climate/ecological point of view, but from the broader perspective of our world made up of both people and nature. His thinking is influenced by St Francis of Assisi, and his thoughts and solutions to such problems as corporate greed, poverty and pollution, are sensitively and simply put. Highly recommended.

Lumen Fidei

Pope Francis IX

This encyclical, begun by Pope Benedict XVI and completed by Pope Francis, concludes the trilogy of letters on the three theological virtues begun by Pope Benedict with Deus Caritas Est on Love and Spe Salvi on hope.

Evangelii Nuntiandi: On Evangelization in the Modern World

God is Love: Deus Caritas Est

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVIth

$30.00

In this his first Encyclical, Pope Emeritus Benedict helps to clarify the meaning of love. He examines the nature of various kinds of love – human love and divine love, eros, friendship, and charity.

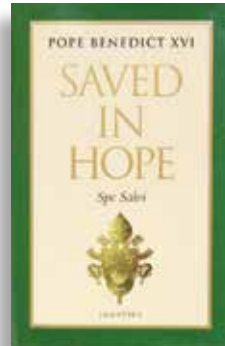

He writes inspirationally of how man was made for love by the God who is love, the God who became one of us out of love – Jesus Christ. In the second part of the Encyclical, Benedict addresses the Church’s practice of love. He examines the relationship between justice and charity, as well as the call of every Catholic to serve others in love. The Pope’s “love letter” to mankind is remarkably accessible and timely.

9781921963827 102 pages

Saved In Hope: Spe Salvi

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVIth

$30.00

In this work, the Holy Father continues a line of thought he began with his first encyclical, God is Love.

“Confronted by today’s changing and complex panorama, the virtue of hope is subject to harsh trials in the community of believers. For this very reason, we must be apostles who are filled with hope and joyful trust in God’s promises. In contemporary society, which shows such visible signs of secularism, we must not give in to despair.”

— Pope Benedict XVI

9781586172510 Hardback 107 pages

Charity In Truth: Caritas in Veritate

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVIth

$30.00

Pope Benedict’s third encyclical, Charity in Truth (Caritas in Veritate), applies the themes of his first two encyclicals (listed above) – to the world’s major social issues.

Drawing on moral truths open, in principle, to everyone (the natural law) as well as on the teachings of the gospel (revelation), Pope Benedict addresses Catholics and non-Catholics alike, challenging us all to recognize and then to confront the social evils of our day.

Alive To The World Program

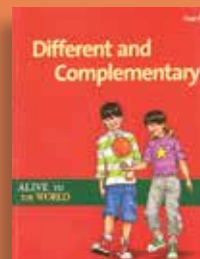

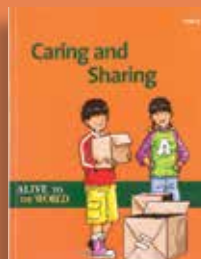

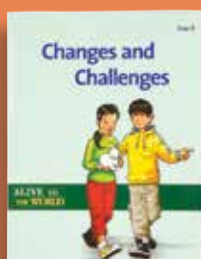

BACKGROUND

The growth of Personal, Social, Health and Economic (PSHE) education in the school curriculum is a worldwide phenomenon. Schools everywhere are being asked to inspire good citizenship and pre-empt antisocial behaviour in matters such as drugs, alcohol, bullying, eating habits and especially in teenage pregnancy and sexually transmitted diseases. However, everybody knows that you have only to tell children not to do something for them to want to do the opposite.

Many PSHE Strategies consist of quick fix courses with a negative tone which can exacerbate the problems they seek to solve.
