Blessed John Henry Newman — A Richly Illustrated Portrait

Sr. Kathleen FSO and Sr. Mary FSO

Many may wonder why Newman was beatified, what it was that made him holy. The authors indicate an answer to this question. His was not a life of extraordinary signs and wonders, of visions and ecstasies, nor of physical trials. His holiness consisted in living up to the divine gifts and virtues of faith, hope and love, accepting and obeying God's will in the ordinary, everyday circumstances of life, as well as in the extraordinary spiritual trials he faced for long periods.

Untying the Knots

Paul Vallely

$29.95

Paul Vallely went to Argentine to talk to a wide range of supporters and critics of Jorge Bergoglio, now better known as Pope Francis.

The author describes the 'tortured complexity' of life under the military dictatorship — one of the most brutal in the 20th century. The Pope is initially portrayed as a silent enigma, sitting on the sidelines, refusing to speak out. As the story develops we learn of his quiet, courageous, heroic acts. When he was unexpectedly elected the new Pope described himself as 'a sinner trusting in the mercy of God.'

As Pope, he appears determined to reform and decentralize a corrupt Vatican bureaucracy and banking system. He frequently challenges all the baptised to be part of the mission of the Church, emphasising God's closeness to the poor and marginalised. This book is a well-balanced entry into the life of a remarkable man.

Ceremony of Innocence

Dorothy Cummings McLean

~~$39.90~~ special $35.00

Set in modern-day Germany, and ripped from the headlines, this is a very contemporary novel of Europe on the edge of social breakdown.

McLean's realistic narrative does not describe the feats of heroes: rather, it unnervingly lays bare the way religious faith and moral reasoning can be easily manipulated and compromised.

Terrapin

T.M. Doran

~~$39.90~~ special $35.00

Dennis Cole and his three childhood friends gather for a reunion. On the first night, one of the men is murdered – or is he?

A murder mystery and a coming of age story, both with many twists and turns, Terrapin is about man's potential for doing either good or evil, his tendency to do the latter, and his response to the consequences of his actions.

Do No Harm

Fiorella de Maria Nash ~~$39.90~~ special $35.00

When a British doctor saves the life of a woman who apparently attempted suicide, he is accused of a crime: trespassing on a woman's right to die.

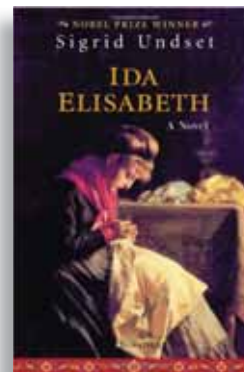

The legal and personal battles he faces raise questions about the role of the physician in the modern world, contemporary beliefs about autonomy and human rights and the increasingly bitter clash of values in 21st century Britain.

One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich

Alexander Solzhenitsyn

$14.95

Ivan Denisovich, a common carpenter, is one of millions viciously imprisoned for years on baseless charges, sentenced to the waking nightmares of the Soviet work camps in Siberia.

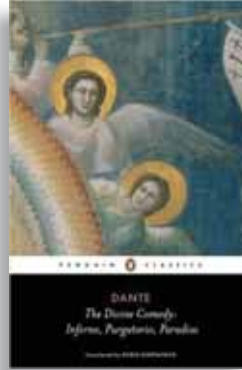

Even in the face of degrading hatred, where life is reduced to a bowl of gruel and a rare cigarette, hope and dignity prevail. This powerful novel of fact is a scathing indictment of Communist tyranny, and an eloquent affirmation of the human spirit.

The Divine Comedy

Dante Alighieri

$85.00

The Divine Comedy describes Dante's descent into Hell with Virgil as a guide, his ascent of Mount Purgatory and encounter with his dead love, Beatrice and finally, his arrival in Heaven.

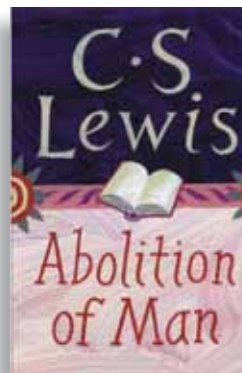

Examining questions of faith, desire and enlightenment, the poem is a brilliantly nuanced and moving allegory of human redemption.

C.S. Lewis

$20.95

Gulag Archipelago

Alexander Solzhenitsyn

$45.00

The Gulag Archipelago is Solzhenitsyn's masterwork, a vast canvas of camps, prisons, transit centres and secret police, of informers and spies and interrogators and also of heroism, a Stalinist anti-world at the heart of the Soviet Union, where the key to survival lay not in hope but in despair.

The work is based on the testimony of some two hundred survivors, and on the recollection of Solzhenitsyn's own eleven years in labour camps and exile. It is both a thoroughly researched document and a feat of literary and imaginative power. This edition has been abridged into one volume at the author's wish and with his full cooperation.
